Mountain Laurel Center for the Performing Arts

Dedicated to providing high-quality seasonal arts and entertainment events to the residents and visitors of our region, we also partner with local schools to promote lifelong learning in the arts.

The Tom Ridge Pavilion, built to the artistic specification of a major orchestra and with fabulous acoustics, seats 2,500 under cover to listen to renowned artists from our region and around the world, and on the Great Lawn, 3,000 more can relax under the stars while listening to first-rate music.

Mountain Laurel Center for the Performing Arts is a non-profit corporation under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS Code. Contributions are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. The official registration and financial information of the Mountain Laurel Center for the Performing Arts may be obtained from the Pennsylvania Department of State by calling toll-free, within Pennsylvania, 800.732.0999. Registration does not imply endorsement.

A MAN NAMED

Harry Kiesendahl had a vision for our region.

He saw Mountain Laurel Center as:

- ▶ A Leader in the arts, culture, community enrichment, and tourism;
- ▶ A Presenter of the region's and the world's leading artists;
- ▶ An Educator for our region's youth and families;
- ▶ A Center for our region now and long into the future; and
- ▶ A Place for All Ages

We want to see Harry's vision fully realized.

The vision is

Mountain Laurel Center for the Performing Arts

We think of it as

"THE HOUSE THAT HARRY BUILT"

It is a place for music, dance, theatre, imagination
and you!
